FLAGSTAFF, ARIZONA

THE WEEK IN WILLIAMS.

From the "Sun's" Regular Correspondent.

Mud and dissension appear predominant just now.

Dr. Francis is in California on business this week.

City Attorney Dunbar returned this week from a business trip to California.

Ed Crawford, the Williams jeweler, has moved his stock of jewelry to the postoffice building.

Tom Andrews, the genial saloon man, has a neat new cottage almost completed on West Railroad avenue.

Rumor has it that ex-Supervisor Fred Holden will erect a large and commodious lodging-house across the track at once.

United States Marshal Morrell arrested one Walter Joyce Monday evening while in the act of robbing a pedestrian on the street.

E. Howell has sold his interest in the butcher business and left Tuesday for Flagstaff, where himself and family will reside in the future.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Forney of South Third street, last Tuesday, a daughter. All parties interested doing well and everybody happy.

Fireman Tom Knight of No. 21 has secured a thirty days' leave of absence and will spend Christmas with home folks at Logansport, Indiana.

Marshal Boggeln came in Tuesday night with the two men charged with burglary, and their trial before Judge Simpson is in progress at present.

Miss Cora McFinnie of the intermediate grade of the public school attended the county teachers' examination at Flagstaff Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Deputy United States Marshal Frank Morrell has commenced a new restaurant building, 20x40 feet, on his lots lately purchased of the Scott estate on Railroad avenue.

The M. E. Sunday school will celebrate Christmas eve by displaying a handsome tree and dispensing presents, accompanied by appropriate exercises on that evening.

C. E. Boyce has his handsome new store building on Railroad avenue in a manner completed, and is having laid around the same the handiest and most substantial sidewalks in the city.

The Epworth League reading at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gallatin Tuesday evening was much above the average from both points of attendance and interest. The subject was "Feudal History."

The many friends of Engineer Walter Bordell, who is confined to his bed at the Albuquerque hospital, will be pleased to learn of his recovery towards good health and will soon be again at his post of duty.

H. E. Thurman, the man who was so lately a bridegroom, having wedded one of the East End's fairest maidens, has "skipped by the light of the moon," conjugal felicity in that neck o' woods being slightly out of tune.

Williams is becoming intensely musical, Messrs. Gardner & Zellinger of Los Angeles having sold five pianos and one organ the past week, the purchasers being Messrs. Burns, Fleming, Hayward, Howell and Andrews.

Polson Bros. are moving their immense stock of general merchandise into their new store building. With the completion of this Williams can boast of three general merchandise stores that would be a credit to any town.

The City Council at their regular meeting Monday evening passed Ordinance No. 20, relative to the assessment and collection of city taxes. The maximum tax is placed at four mills per dollar. Notice was served on the council by and through City Attorney Dunbar to appear before Judge Hawkins at Holbrook on the 9th inst. and show cause why the city should not be enjoined from further franchises as a municipal corporation.

Hobbs effected an entrance into the business places of Messrs. Boyce, Salzman and Joe Broyles last Saturday evening. They secured $27 at Broyles' and $7 at Salzman's, securing nothing at C. E. Boyce's. That they were experts at the business is evidenced by the fact that they awakened none of the men who sleep in each of the places, there being two employees sleeping in each building. One of the men has been arrested, but at this writing the other is at liberty.

If you are looking for somewhere to go to spend Christmas night just step over to Williams and spend the evening with the Williams Social and Literary Club, attending the ball of the season. Special music, special decorations and a special spread at the Harvey house, under the charge of Mr. Hagerman, bespeak an occurrence in the social line that has never been excelled along the "Wood." The club will also give a Leap Year ball on New Year's evening, in which the ladies are expected to do the honors of the evening. Any gentleman presenting himself for admission unless in charge of a fair one, will promptly be given the G. B.

Justices Johnson and Simpson both enjoyed a busy day yesterday. "Scotty," the pugilist, who became rather boisterous in one of the saloons on Tuesday night and was instructed by Watchman Smith to get quiet, but instead of doing so became vile in his professions against arrest, was up before Judge Johnson and was administered the limited dose of $10. Frank Dougherty, was also before Judge Johnson, for assault upon a Chinaman. The Chinaman, it appears, in the difficulty attempted to use a knife, when Dougherty struck the Chinaman. Dougherty applied for and received a change of venue to Judge Simpson, and his case has not been heard at this writing.

About a month ago Deputy Marshal Stankard arrested Benjamin Matches, a Russian, in Phoenix on a charge of passing counterfeit money. On examination Matches was adjudged not guilty and discharged. Now he has invoked the power of the Czar to avenge his unjust arrest. Correspondence between the Russian government and the State Department at Washington has resulted.

The Arizona Improvement Company sold last week some of their Salt River valley oranges to Jevne & Co., the leading grocers of Chicago, at $7 per box, and now have a telegraph order for seventy boxes more. This is double the price of any oranges on the Chicago market and they are retailed at $1.50 a dozen. These prices are significant and sufficiently sustain the reputation the oranges of the valley have both for quality and early ripening.—Cerald.

William Frazier and his partner, Henry Brazel, were caved on in the main shaft of the Arnold mine last Sunday, Frazier dying from the effects of his injuries the following day. Brazel was but slightly injured and will be laid up a very short time. It is said the cave resulted from insufficient timbering. Frazier and Brazel were late arrivals from New Almaden quicksilver mines and had only worked two shifts when the accident occurred. The funeral occurred at Cedar the following day.—Mohave Miner.

J. B. Parks, foreman for McKittrick, made a very curious discovery at the top of the highest peak in the Dos Cabezas mountains last Saturday. As Mr. Parks and another man were leading their horses over the summit of the mountains they saw steam issuing from a hole in the rock, and on closer observation found a cavern leading down into the interior of the mountain, small at the top, but apparently widening as depth was reached, from which a thick cloud of very warm vapor was issuing.—Sulphur Valley News.
